Horizon Bay Retirement Living expands management team
Horizon Bay announces new Director of Talent Acquisition

Tampa, Fla. – December 17, 2009 – Horizon Bay Retirement Living, a national seniors housing operator based in Tampa, Fla., announces the appointment of Dave Anderson as director of talent acquisition. In his new position, Anderson will be responsible for recruiting and attracting the industry’s best talent to both the corporate office and the 89 Horizon Bay Retirement Living communities in 18 states across the country. By developing a social media strategy and implementing a talent management solution, Anderson’s goal will be attracting quality employees nationwide.

Prior to joining Horizon Bay, Anderson served as the recruiting manager for The Weitz Company, a commercial construction company with 2,300 employees and 27 offices nationwide, and senior recruiter at Centex Rodgers, Inc., a healthcare construction services company. He has also worked for Target Corporation and OfficeMax, Inc. in a regional and corporate recruiting capacity.

“Dave’s professional achievements, excellent reputation and considerable recruiting experience will be a meaningful and valuable asset to our human resources team,” said Khadeeja Morse, senior director of Human Resources at Horizon Bay Retirement Living. “He provides Horizon Bay with several different new areas of expertise, and we look forward to his added perspective as we continue to move Horizon Bay Retirement Living to the forefront of seniors housing companies nationwide.”

Anderson earned a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration at The Ohio State University in 1989, where he had a dual major in International Business and Marketing and a minor in Chinese.
